Congregational Development Process

Strategic Place

A location that represents promise of a strategic nature. A Strategic Place can be rural, urban, suburban, or collegiate in nature.

Diocese Deanery Congregation

Interest Group

A group of people who are consdering whether or not God may be calling them together on mission to serve the work of the Gospel in their community.

Deanery Congregation

Chapel

A multi-church planting venture utilizing a joint service in a new location. The members and attending still belong to their sending church.

Deanery Congregation

Launch Team

A group of people seeking to plant a new Church, coached by an approved Church Plant Coach guiding the development of the Launch Team to Mission status.

Requirements:
Church Planter or Dean
20 Adults
Council of Advice
Checking Account
Safeguarding Policies in Effect

Deanery Congregation

Church Plant

Guided by a Church Planter and Steering Team, and supported by a coach, the focus of a Church Plant is spiritual and physical growth.

Requirements:
40 Adults
Steering Team
LCC or 501(c)3
All Launch Team Requirements

Diocese Deanery Congregation

Mission

A Mission is a Church Plant that has "taken root" and is growing steadily in health and fruitfulness.

Requirements:
Weekly worship
Founding documentation
Mission Council
Tithing 10%
All Church Plant Requirements

Diocese Deanery Congregation

Congregation

When a Mission reaches the stable size of 100 confirmed adults, a junior and senior lay leader, and other markers that it is self-sustaining, self-governing, and self-replicating, it can apply to the Diocesan Council to be recognized as a Congregation.

Requirements:
Senior Lay Leader
Junior Lay Leader

Diocese Deanery

Re-Plant

When a Congregation or a Mission experiences regression, local discernment is required for re-planting.

Requirements:
Bishop's Approval
Canon Missioner involvement
Dean involvement
Congregational Survey of Resources (people, finances, facility)
Re-Plant plan
