Anglican Studies Program/Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary - Come learn from Dcn. Rachael Green, Canon for Leadership Development, about the educational opportunities available through our diocesan Anglican Studies Program and partnership with Gordon-Conwell to equip leaders for ministry within the Anglican tradition.

Anglican Youth Ministry 201 – Building on foundation principles, Dcn. Tori Davis dives into the deeper discipleship strategies, long-term vision, and shared curriculum that AYM has been developing for nurturing the next generation.

Building Healthy Deaneries – Join the panel of the DCOH Deans for a session discussing strategies to foster vibrant mutual support, shared mission, and relational health among our deaneries and local parishes.

Church Planting 101 – Led by Rev. Cn. Brandon Walsh, this foundational session introduces core frameworks, practical models, and spiritual principles for successfully launching new Anglican congregations.

Clergy Care 101 – Dcn. Ashley Davis, Canon for Clergy Care, discusses the foundational principles of health, sustainable rhythms, and support systems necessary for the well-being of ordained leaders in our Diocese.

Clergy Care 201 – Led by Rev. Brian Campbell, Canon for Clergy Care, this session builds on the foundational concepts of Clergy Care 101 to offer advanced strategies for navigating the complex challenges of pastoral ministry.

Come and See: Two Truths and a Lie About Family Discipleship - Built around Isaiah 55:11 and led by Danielle Hitchen of Anglican House Publishers, this session invites parents to reframe how they think about discipling their children at home, challenging some common assumptions about what faithful parenting actually requires and meeting parents exactly where they are—in the messy, ordinary, and in-between moments of daily life.

Curacy Plan - This informational session, led by Dcn. Rachael Green, Canon for Leadership Development, outlines the structured pathway, expectations, and best practices for developing effective curacies that transition ordinands into fruitful ministry.

A Discussion Regarding Spiritual Battle and Exorcism - The Church has always proclaimed Christ's power to set people free, so join Rev. Zach Croonquist in this session as he introduces deliverance and exorcism ministry and the Society of St. Michael, which trains clergy and lay people to do this work carefully, under a bishop's oversight.

Diocesan Council - This session offers a window into the governance, strategic vision, and administrative updates from the Diocese of Christ Our Hope Council.

Evangelical Fellowship in the Anglican Communion USA – Rev. Richard Crocker from the EFAC-USA invites us to learn about how they can help us, how we might help them, and why it matters for biblical faithfulness in the Reformed tradition.

Every Tribe and Nation Initiative Safeguarding – Led by Rev. Sergio Sapunar, Canon for Ethics and Safeguarding, and Lee Hilts, Chief Operating Officer, this focused session helps train and empower leaders to build safe and healthy ministry spaces in our ETNI congregations.

Falconer Coffee – Daniel Zimmerman of Falconer Coffee will discuss how the products used for a church's hospitality and social functions can augment its evangelism and spiritual formation, and why good coffee is the cornerstone of a hospitable welcome!

International Deanery – Join Bp. Steve Breedlove as he highlights the unique mission, collaborative efforts, and global updates of our Diocese's international deanery.

The Lectionary and Ancient Interpretation – Led by Rev. Michael Neibauer, award-winning author of From Word to Worship, discover the connections between Scripture, liturgy, and the seasons of the Church and learn how an ancient approach to Scripture can enable Christians to understand how the Old Testament and New Testament lectionary readings relate to each other and to the liturgy of the Church.

Leveraging the Anglican Introduction to Missions Course – Led by Jenny Noyes of New Wineskins, come learn about all the resources available to you to highlight global missions for the season of Epiphany, World Mission Sunday on January 31, 2027, and beyond!

Living+Active - Ready to transform the reading of Scripture in your Sunday worship? Come hear from Elizabeth Traylor of Living+Active Ministries on practical tips for better reading, ideas for how to create an ongoing Readers' Ministry, and why it all matters in the first place.

The Mission Field Hiding in Plain Sight - Come learn from Rev. Michael Niebauer of Heritage Mission about the pressing needs of nursing home residents and how your church can bring the Gospel to these residents by starting a simple worship service in a care facility near you.

Parish Hall – Taylor Fletcher of Parish Hall hosts a conversation about the tools liturgical parishes use to run their common life, where they fall short, and what a church management platform built for the way you worship should look like—come help shape something worth using!

Q&A with the Diocesan Bishops - This open forum gives attendees a direct opportunity to ask questions and engage in dialogue with the bishops of the Diocese.

Safeguarding 201 - Moving beyond basics, Rev. Sergio Sapunar, Canon for Ethics and Safeguarding, gives advanced training and practical steps on maintaining secure, accountable, and healthy environments within parish ministries.

Solving Poverty Need Not Cost Millions! – Come learn from Virgil Hughes of New Vines International how making a difference in the lives of the poor does not have to cost billions.

Sudan Church Partners – Rev. Jared Wensyel of Sudan Church Partners shares background and introduces the work of the Anglican Church in Sudan's Nuba Mountains as well as provides updates on the current situation in the midst of Sudan's ongoing civil war and humanitarian crisis.

Time Apart with the Good Shepherd - Led by DCOH spiritual directors Rev. Chris and Claire Andrews, this breakout will incorporate a Christian contemplative practice to provide intentional space for each person to spend extended time in silence with the Lord, gathering at the start for a brief introduction to the practice and Family Midday Prayer and returning after the silence for a brief closing discussion.

Bp. Yassir Eric, Convocation Presenter and Preacher – An informal time for people to get to know our guest presenter and preacher, Bp. Yassir Eric of Ekkios Diocese, and his ministry to the global church.
